We remain committed to continue cooperating with all local stakeholders who are working towards strengthening media freedom and safety of journalists in the Western Balkans;

We stand in solidarity with their commitment to ensure that the path to EU membership is inextricably tied to the realisation of the rule of law and an end to impunity for all crimes against journalists;

We will work towards stronger collaboration with international actors in the region, such as the EU, the CoE, OSCE and UNESCO, in regard to strengthening mechanisms of prevention, protection and prosecution of crimes against journalists;

We recognize the importance of participants' engagement in monitoring and keeping track of attacks against journalists;

We welcome the creation of institutions dedicated to improving relations and building sustainable programs to safeguard media freedom;

We are committed to further building and strengthening the relationship between the judicial system and the journalists' community in regard to both existing and new challenges such as online safety of journalists and Strategic Litigations Against Public Participation (SLAPPs).

We look forward to supporting further dialogues between journalists and judicial professionals at the country levels, and to taking stock of progress at the third and final regional conference in the current phase of this initiative.
